QPR TRAINING FOR SUICIDE PREVENTION

QUESTION, PERSUADE, REFER

Suicide is a major public health issue. Over 45,000 people in the United States die from suicide annually. That's 1 person every 13 minutes.

You Can Make a Difference!

Take the QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) Suicide Prevention Course and learn to recognize the warning signs of suicide and how to apply three simple steps that may save a life.

Presented by certified instructor Tiffany Decker of the Lake in the Hills Police Department and NAMI McHenry County, the QPR Suicide Prevention training includes:

- The problem of suicide nationally and locally in Illinois & McHenry County
- Common myths and facts associated with suicide
- Warning signs of suicide
- Tips for asking the suicide question
- Methods for persuading suicidal individuals to get help
- Ways of referring at-risk people to local resources
- Approximately one hour of instruction followed by Q & A

Who should register?

This program is designed for anybody who wants to recognize someone at risk of suicide, no matter what your profession or employment status. Anyone who works or interacts with people, regardless of their field of employment, can benefit.

This event is open to anyone 18+

ALL PARTICIPANTS MUST REGISTER BY FRIDAY, MAY 3, 2024

PSR COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MONDAY (PERSONAL GROWTH)

I like to Move It! Move It! (10am-11am): Come get active with various exercises and movement activities! This class will utilize the fresh outdoors as often as the weather permits.

The Way of Wind and Water (11am-12pm): Feng Shui is an ancient Chinese art of arranging buildings, objects and spaces in an environment to achieve harmony and balance. Come to this group to learn how you could integrate concepts of Feng Shui into your daily life and promote personal growth!

Who am I? What do I need? (12pm-1pm): In this group, we will use Maslow's hierarchy of needs model to help increase your understanding of yourself and your needs. The goal of this group will be to enhance your personal growth through identifying and understanding your personal needs, learning strategies that help you meet your needs, and increasing your understanding of who you are as a person.

Craft Lab (1pm-2pm): Personal growth can be fostered by adapting and learning new skills sets. Come join this group to foster personal growth by exploring your artistic expression and tapping into your creative self!

TUESDAY (HEALTHY HABITS)

Catching some Z's (10am-11am): Do you struggle with sleeping at night? Then this group is perfect for you! We will be discussing what sleep hygiene is, the importance of sleep, how it can affect mental health, and work towards creating a better sleep routine.

Developing a New Norm (11am-12pm): Join this group and embark on learning how to modify and create healthy routines. We will explore barriers to meeting healthy habit goals and how to get your desired results.

Healthy Eating: (12pm - 1pm): This class aims to help you find healthy lifestyle habits. Participants will learn how to adopt a healthy lifestyle following nutritional guidelines and identify alternatives to meals that can help better their food choices.

Practicing Gratitude (1pm-2pm): Gratitude can help to disconnect us from toxic, negative emotions and the ruminating that often accompanies them. In this group, we will explore how to make gratitude a habit through exercises like journaling and letter writing.

PSR COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

WEDNESDAY (SOCIAL SKILLS)

Social Media (10am-11am): Social media can often trick us into scams, relationships, and into believing things that are not real. Come join this group to dive deeper into the truth of social media and learn how to use social media in a positive and healthy way!

Healthy Relationships utilizing DBT Skills (11am-12pm): This group covers concepts detailed from DBT skill Interpersonal Effectiveness which helps a person determine how to have a healthy relationship with others. The group will provide handouts and worksheets which give concepts to the client to promote how a healthy relationship starts with the energy and knowledge towards affecting the relationships in their life.

All About Boundaries (12pm-1pm): Come learn how boundaries impact our everyday life and how we can identify, set, and maintain healthy boundaries for ourselves!

Forgiveness (1pm-2pm): Forgiveness means different things to different people. But in general, it involves an intentional decision to let go of resentment and anger. The act that hurt or offended you might always be with you. But working on forgiveness can lessen that act's grip on you.

THURSDAY (SYMPTOM MANAGEMENT)

Radical Self-Care (10am-11am): Taking the time, space, and resources we need can be difficult when symptoms are intense or when others around us are struggling. In this group, we will identify self-care strategies and barriers to addressing our needs. We will also explore the relationship between mental health issues, insufficient self-care, and the benefits of regular self-care.

Stress with Desserts! (11am-12pm): Yes, that's right, desserts to be included as we navigate through daily or ongoing stressors and learn ways to manage for overall wellness.

The Science of Happiness (12pm-1pm): What is happiness and how can we get more? Are there strategies to increase our percentage of happiness? Come to this class and find out!

Failure 101 (1pm-2pm): When we read the word failure most of tend to cringe or feel taken aback; however, failure is a natural part of life and helps us to grow. In this group we will explore common perceived failures, their impact on our mental health, and how to utilize failure to its fullest potential in a healthy manner.

Women's Betrayal Recovery, Support & Growth Group

A support and growth group for women eighteen years or older, who have experienced betrayal by a partner in an intimate relationship, regardless of the status of the relationship or when the betrayal took place. This group is not twelve- step based, not religious based and not intended to provide relationship advice or treatment. It is a safe, non-judgmental space where discussions are guided by a licensed clinical social worker with over twenty years of experience in the field. Group focus is on women supporting other women in their healing journeys through personal recovery work, processing emotions, building resiliency and creating a vision of hope.

This group is held in a private setting in Crystal Lake, and is limited to six participants.
